

Details of Business

1. Transportation & Logistics: The Company is engaged in operating as fleet carriers and transporters for movement of goods and materials through various modes of transport including road, rail, air and water. The activities include organizing, managing and operating transportation services for domestic as well as international routes for efficient movement of goods and cargo.

2. Trading & Merchanting Activities: The Company carries on the business of import, export, processing, packing, re-packing, purchase, sale and distribution of a wide range of goods and services. These include food products, processed and packaged foods, agricultural commodities and other related merchandise, and the Company may also act as clearing and forwarding agents, distributors, brokers, consignors or consignees.

3. Information Technology & Software Services: The Company is involved in the development, customization, distribution and trading of software products, mobile applications, web applications and digital platforms. The activities also include providing IT enabled services such as application development, web design, portal development, online marketplace services and other related technology solutions.

4. Agriculture & Agro-Processing: The Company undertakes cultivation, growing, harvesting and dealing in agricultural produce such as fruits, vegetables, seeds and herbal products. It may also establish processing and storage facilities including cold storage, refrigeration and preservation units for handling agricultural products and provide consulting, support and distribution services in the agro sector.